

McKillican Recognized by the Forest Stewardship Council

McKillican International, Inc. is the proud recipient of the award for Pacific Northwest Champion for 2010 by the Forest Stewardship Council (FSC). FSC presents this prestigious award to a business that exhibits extraordinary efforts to sustain our forests and expand the market for FSC-Certified products. Only 4 companies across North America have been chosen for this award.

The award was presented to Paul Nystrom, Director of Specifications and Environmental Products for McKillican by Corey Brikema, President FSC-USA and Ian Hanna, Director of Development. The award was presented at the FSC Regional Workshop held on January 11, 2011 in Seattle, WA.

Nystrom states that receiving this award is an honor and an indication of McKillican's commitment to the stewardship of our forests and practicing responsible distribution in the wood and panel sector.
